Introduction with "bio.php?username
jasonwhiteside" Jason Whiteside

The DWF Logo sits firmly on the front of the stream window. A countdown from 10 begins. As it hits one the logo fades away to Jason Whiteside standing with a microphone in front of a backdrop.

"Welcome everyone for tuning in to dreamwrestling.com for two exclusive matches! These were taped during the DWF fan meet and greet on April 23rd at the Key Arena, where one week from tonight we will be holding the first DWF Sunday Night Slaughter since 2001!

I'm, Jason

Whiteside, your host for the night and Slaughter commentator. I know you're excited as I am, so lets get to the action!"

markmason" Mark Mason vs.

ericpayne" Eric Payne

The video changes to see a travel size ring with fans surrounding it. A techno beat begins to play as Mark Mason comes out and down the ramp. Once in the ring, his music fades out and Korn's 'Falling away from me' begins to play. Eric Payne walks down and stops, looking at the fans.

He then runs down and slides into the ring under the bottom rope. As he jumps to his feet, Payne and Mason begin exchanging punches right away. The referee calls for the bell to ring to officially begin the match.

Mason goes to kick

Payne, but Payne catches his leg. Mason quickly turns it into a mule kick. Payne stumbles back and into the ropes. Mason leaps to his feet and rushes the startled Eric Payne, who lunges foreword with a clothesline, nearly taking the head off of Mark Mason. Eric Payne grabs the top rope and uses it for leverage as he stomps away at Mark Mason. Eric lets up on Mason. He grabs his left leg and pulls him to the middle of the ring. As he reaches down to grab Mason's other leg, Mark uses it to kick Payne back.

Mason rolls over to his stomach, and pushes himself to his feet. He runs past Payne, jumping to the second rope.

As Payne turns around, Mason bounces off of the rope, wrapping his legs around the head of his opponent, and quickly turns it into a Hurricarana. The fans scream and shout. Mason goes for the pin, but Eric Payne kicks out at two. Mason gets to his feet, and grabs Payne's head, pulling him up. Eric Payne stops him halfway, by delivering several hard shots to the mid section. He grabs Mason, and hits a big belly to belly suplex that goes into a pin.

The referee drops and the three count is made.

'Falling away from me' begins to play again and the referee holds Eric Payne's arm in victory. As Mark Mason rolls out of the ring, Eric Payne climbs a turnbuckle and raises both his arms. He then exits the ring and begins to the back as we cut back to Jason Whiteside.

Match Recap with

Eric Payne picked up his debut win at our meet and greet as he defeated Mark Mason in about six minutes. Both of these superstars have a massive amount of talent, and I am sure on Slaughter one week from tonight, you will get to see them display it to their full potential.

In the debut of Slaughter on DTN you'll see Mark Mason take on the New York original Thug, AK 47.

Also in action, Eric Payne will be in the main event as he meets The Headliner, Michael Byrd. Joining me now, is Caroline Kelly who will be in attendance next Sunday and participate in a dark match for the fans who will be in the Key Arena live. You will be able to catch this match live via Dreamwrestling.com after the show airs live on DTN.

Caroline Kelly walks into the scene with Jason Whiteside.

"Welcome

Kelly to the Dreamwrestling.com exclusive two match pre-slaughter webcast. I've already filled the fans in who are streaming this now that you'll be in attendance next Sunday in a dark match against fellow DWF women's signee, Trish

Kelly pulls the microphone near here and look at Jason while she talks.

"I am excited to be able to be in the first Dream Wrestling women's match of 2009 Jason. It doesn't matter if the match airs live Sunday, or is played back later on Dreamwrestling.com, the fact is Caroline Kelly is ready to bring it one hundred and ten percent when I face Trisha T on the 3rd."

Jason smiles and pulls the microphone back.

"Caroline, Trisha has more experience then you in the ring. What have you been doing to prepare yourself for this match?"

Caroline nods in agreement.

"She has been wrestling slightly longer then me, it's true. But I'm not worried, and I haven't changed anything I have ever done. I was trained by the best. I've wrestled the best. Come this Sunday I will show why in women's wrestling, I am the best."

Caroline pushes past Jason and exits the shot.

"Caroline Kelly fans, she seems ready to face Trisha T this Sunday at the Key Arena, in Seattle, Washington.

Match Preview with

"Next up on our webcast we will see the self proclaimed 'All-Canadian Hero' Dylan Daniels taking on 'The Illustrated Man' Dark. Dylan Daniels is a former IWGP Junior Heavyweight Champion. Dark carries several championships in his history as well, including more recently the USWL Southern Heavyweight Championship."

We switch back to ringside.

dark" Dark vs.

"bio.php?username

dylandaniels" Dylan Daniels

'Binge and Purge' by Clutch starts to play. Dark steps out from the back and the fans pop. He takes a drag from his cigarette then tosses it down and steps on it before heading to the ring. Once inside the ring, his music fades out. 'Quality Control' by Jurassic 5 starts to play. Dylan Daniels steps out with the hood of his jacket on his head. He raises both arms before throwing them down, taking the hood off and rushing the ring. He slides in and leaps to his feet. Quickly Daniels runs to a turnbuckle and raises an arm to the fans before jumping down and running across to the opposite post, doing the same thing.

Once he jumps to the mat, he pulls his jacket off and tosses it to the time keeper outside the ring. The referee mouths something to him and Dark before calling for the bell to ring. Once it does, both men circle each other before locking up. Dark puts his leg into the stomach of Daniels, followed by an European Uppercut. As Daniels falls back, Dark mounts him and begins punching, angrily, with rights and lefts. The referee pulls Dark up and warns him.

Daniels begins to pulling himself up, using the ropes. Dark pushes past the referee and puts a boot into the back of his head, causing Daniels to fall between the ropes. Dark looks at the crowd and then down at Daniels, before smiling. He steps out to the apron, holds the top rope, and yells to the crowd who yell back with a pop. Dark runs along the apron and jumps up, bringing a big leg drop down on the back of Daniels neck. Dark rolls to the ground outside, holding his arm, as inside the ring Daniels bounces off the middle rope and back to the mat, holding his neck in pain, gasping for breath.

Dark uses this side of the ring to pull himself up, selling the pain of his shoulder and arm as he rolls into the ring. 'The Illustrated Man' grabs the back of Daniels head and yanks him to his feet. Quickly he puts a forearm into the back of Daniels. Dylan sells the hit as Dark turns him around and pushes him into the ropes, using them to shoot
