As the advertisement ends, the screen momentarily goes black. The United Toughness Alliance logo fades in for a few moments before we are treated to a shot of the sold out INTRUST Bank Arena in Wichita. In the bottom left corner of your screen, the word LIVE! appear for a few seconds before disappearing.

As the camera pans across the screaming fans, we are greeted with several shots of signs that they are holding high.

Shock-N-Rolla EMO Express

Midget Von Crank is my Hero Jokers Wild!

I Came for the Nachos Hi Mom

The camera pans down and across to the top of the stage with multiple video panels displaying the UTA brand and pulsating to a remixed version of Eminem's You Don't Know featuring 50 Cent, Llyod Banks, and Cashis.

A series of colorful pyrotechnics arranged along the edge of the stage begin to fire off, followed by a smaller series around the edge of the panels and above. To cap it off, one larger final explosion excites as it fires off from the four corners of the stage. The crowd goes absolutely bonkers.

We fade to the commentator table ringside where Jason Blackfront and Rumor Man Stan sit, headsets on and a look of excitement on their faces. The fans in the front row behind them wave to their family and friends back home as the voices of the UTA welcome us to another edition of WRESTLESHOW.

Blackfront: Welcome everybody to another exciting edition of the United Toughness Alliance's WRESTLESHOW! As always, I'm Jason Blackfront. Joining me tonight on this pre-show is none other than resident WrestleUTA.com Dirt Sheet disher, Rumor Man Stan!

Stan: Man am I excited to be here Jason for this absolutely huge show.

Blackfront: Welcome to the booth Stan. I'm glad you can be here to help call the action as we find out who will head into tonight's internet Pay-Per-View as a wild card entrant. Stan: I wouldn't miss it for the world Jason.

Blackfront: Yes, ten men will enter the ring and only one will survive and move on for an opportunity to become the United Toughness Alliance champion.

Stan: It's going to be crazy!

The camera slowly pans to the left before fading to an angle in front of the stage as we get ready for our match.

Blackfront: This is the pre show to our internet Pay-Per-View. This battle royal will determine who will enter the UTA Championship tournament as a wild card later tonight. Stan: These men all know what is on the line.

Blackfront: Peyton von Licht is on his way to the ring

Announcer: Introducing first, Hailing from Mount Pearl, Newfoundland, Canada! Standing five feet eleven and weighing in at one hundred and seventy three pounds! Peyytttooonnn vooon LICHT.

Stan: von Licht found himself in the wrong locker room last show.

Blackfront: He found himself in the locker room of Jokers Wild and got out of dodge quick.

The intro to "Living In America" plays before he comes out, sporting a custom made cape. On one side of the cape is the Canadian flag, on the other is the American flag. On stage, he gives a very Macho-Man (ooooh, yeah) spin to show the fans the cape. He then takes off into a sprint down the ramp, holding out the arm closest to the fans, giving them high fives in his sprint. As he makes it to the stairs, he climbs them in rhythm to the song. As he enters the ring, he dares to fling himself over the rope, initiating a roll. He'll roll to his feet, celebrating that he did it properly.

Blackfront: Peyton looks like he is ready go here tonight. The winner of this over the top rope battle royal will go in the PPV to face Shawn FX.

Stan: Darian Dumont is now on his way to the ring!

Dumont dashes out on the stage and is met with cheers. He walks down the ramp with his eyes already locked on von Licht.

Announcer: Hailing from sunny Miami, Florida... He stands six feet six inches tall and weighs in at two hundred fifty pounds! He is the Dorasheister! Darian Dumont!!

Darian Dumont hops up on the turnbuckle after trotting up the steps. Peyton watches on as Dumont yells back at the crowd cheering him on.

Stan: Dumont is all over this crowd tonight. Von Licht is watching him closely too.

Blackfront: You have to keep your eye on him at all times.

Peyton Gunn Theme by the Blues Brothers comes on as from the back comes "Doctor Lovegood" Lucius Jones. The Doctor makes his way towards the ring talking to the crowd and slapping hands all the way. He stops to talk up one of the sexy ladies in the front row allowing her the opportunity to give him a kiss on the cheek. He gives the lady a wink before heading up to the ring and climbing the steps to the apron. He steps over the top rope and stands in the center taunting at the crowd as he pays no mind to the other two competitors in the ring.

Announcer: Introducing next! Standing six feet eleven and weighing in at three hundred and forty five pounds! He hails from Birmingham, Alabama! He is Doctor LoveGood!

Lucius Jones!!!

Stan: Woah... That is one big dude.

Blackfront: Doctor LoveGood will be a factor in this battle royal. The sheer size of this man is intimidating alone.

Announcer: Standing six feet three and weighing in at two hundred and thirty eight pounds... He is the One, The Show Stealer! Alllll ENVY!

Stan: Envy lost a close one last week to Chance Von Crank.

Blackfront: Envy claims he was robbed and claims he will be the Champion. He believes he will make his way through this battle royal.

Stan: I'm sure every one of these men would tell you they will move on.

Lights go out as Dirty Angel plays. After about a minute Al Envy comes through the curtain. He stands there arrogantly and holds up one finger signaling he and he alone is number 1. He slowly walks arrogantly to the ring stopping every so often to speak to the fans. He gets onto the apron and climbs the turnbuckle. He holds his arm up and receives feedback from the crowd. He leaps down into the ring and holds his arms out antagonizing the crowd. He leans into the corner and waits for the match to begin.

Blackfront: The ring continues to fill up with characters of all shapes and sizes. These men will compete to move on in the World Championship Tournament. The future champion could well be one of them in the ring.

Stan: Not so fast...Here comes The Mayor!

Howard King walks out on the stage. The crowd is amped at the very sight of his jail house oranges. Howard ignores them all as he walks toward the ring.

Announcer: Standing six feet three and weighing in at two hundred and twenty five pounds is the Mayor himself! Hailing from New Shoreham, Rhode Island its... HOWWWARD KING!!!!

Stan: King believes he was screwed on WrestleShow in his match with FX. Blackfront: Shawn FX squeaked the win after an assault from Jokers Wild. King was furious after the loss.

"Call to Pray" by Seether begins and before Abdul walks out from the back, the fans begins booing nearly to the point of an inverted standing ovation. The noise from the fans is deafening with the ferocity of the boos as the big screen comes to life. Upon it is a circle of ice, with the Iraqi flag in the centre of it Blackfront: The Butcher of Basra looks like he is all business tonight!

Stan: He is scary lookin'. Look at that face... Not even a mother could love that face. Blackfront: The crowd response to this man is intense. We were at war with his country for years to be fair.

Doomsday Jesus by Black Label Society blasts as Frank Dylan James comes barreling through the crowd. The fans slap his back as he passes and his intensity is on full display. He jumps the security barricade, slapping the announce table on his way to the ring.

Announcer: Now on his way to the ring... Standing six feet seven inches tall and weighing in at three hundred twenty pounds... He hails from the Mountains of West Virginia... He is the Redneck Wrecking Ball, FRANK DYLAN JAMES!

Stan: FDJ is full speed tonight. He is another big man in a match loaded with them.

Blackfront: This match will get interesting quick.

Log Habben marches out across the stage. The crowd reaction is immediate. He glares at the crowd in despair before making a dash for the ring. The referee is now in the ring to keep order between all these competitors.

Blackfront: Log Habben is a strange individual.

Stan: He told me in the back earlier he would leave his mark here tonight.

Blackfront: Got an exclusive, eh?

Stan: Don't be a hater.

The first chord of "Never Gonna Change" by Drive-By Truckers hits and the arena stands to their feet with a mixed reaction.

As the first verse hits, Corbin steps out onto the ramp. After a short pause, he raises his right fist into the air, then brings it down and slaps himself in the chest twice.

Announcer: Now on his way to the ring... Weighing in at two hundred and fifty five pounds and hailing from Tombstone, Arizona.... The Reaper! Marcus Corbin!

Slowly, he walks down the entrance ramp, slapping hands with the occasional fan. Finally, after arriving at the steel stairs, he climbs up and wipes his wrestling boots off on the apron. He ducks underneath the top rope and into the ring.

Corbin stands in the middle of the ring, raises his right fist into the air, then brings it down and slaps himself in the chest twice.

Stan: Corbin better be ready for a fight here tonight. All of these men have one thing on the brain this night...

Blackfront: To move on and become the United Toughness Alliance World Champion. "Re-Education (Through Labor) by Rise Against resonates from the PA system as jet of smoke erupts on the stage as the lights dim.

To the sound of a heartbeat pounding away To the rhythm of the awful rusty machines We toss and turn but don't sleep

Each breath we take makes us thieves Like causes without rebels

Just talk but promise nothing else

Frank Washington emerges from behind the smoke with his back turned and his arms outstretched wide. He slowly turns around revealing a smirk on his face as he points to himself several times before raising his arm pointing high.

We crawl on our knees for you Under a sky no longer blue We sweat all day long for you

But we sow seeds to see us through

'cause sometimes dreams just don't come true We wait to reap what we are due

He lowers his arm and makes his way down the entrance ramp in a slow methodical fashion absorbing the atmosphere of the raucous crowd packing the arena tonight. Announcer: Making his way to the ring, now residing in San Jose, California weighing 233lbs he is the Revolutionary Turncoat, Frank Washington!

To the rhythm of a time bomb ticking away And the blare of the sirens combing the streets Chased down like dogs we run from

Your grasp until the sun comes up

He then pauses near the end of the ramp, pointing to himself as he can be heard saying "Looking out for Number One!" He backs off for a moment before sprinting towards the ring as he slides in under the bottom rope.

"We crawl on our knees for you Under a sky no longer blue

We sweat all day long for you

But we sow seeds to see us through

'cause sometimes dreams just don't come true Look now at what they've done to you

White needles buried in the red The engine roars and then it gives But never dies

'cause we don't live We just survive

On the scraps that you throw away."

Frank Washington then gets up and approaches the turnbuckle as he climbs up on the second rope pausing for a moment as he again soaks in the atmosphere created by the UTA faithful as he outstretches his arms wide to pose. After a few moment's pause he descends the turnbuckle taking his coat off and turns his attention to the ring.[/center]

Stan: The referee will have his hands full so he has called for backup on the outside. These referees's will be to watch for two feet hitting the outside. If two feet hit the floor you are done here tonight.

Blackfront: Leaving here a loser means you have lost your shot at the UTA World Championship.

The bell rings and all the men clash in the ring. Von Licht drop kicks Frank Dylan James as Abdul and Lucius clobber each other. The two men hammer away with Jones getting the upper hand in the corner. Al Envy and Darian Dumont are rolling around on the mat fighting as Dumont pokes Envy's left eye.

Blackfront: Dumont just poked Envy in the eye!

Stan: Ladies and Gentlemen this is a true battle. Jason, these men will do anything to get a upper hand here. This is war.

Frank Washington hits a vicious DDT out of nowhere on Peyton von Licht. Envy in the corner is now hitting sharp knee strikes on Dumont mounted in the corner.

Blackfront: I can feel those knee strikes from here, Stan.

Stan: Dumont pissed him off with that poke to the eye and is paying for it right now. Howard King nails a bent over Abdul with a leg drop from the top rope. The crowd loves it as King gets to his feet ducking a clothesline from Washington. He counters with a swinging neck breaker. FDJ charges King swinging him into the ropes and the momentum sends him over the top and onto the apron.

Stan: King is now on the apron! He could be eliminated right here!

Blackfront: King rolls under the bottom rope and is now back in the ring. He realizes how close to elimination he was there.

Corbin rushes Log Habben with a belly to back release suplex sending him half way across the ring. Habben retreats to the outside of the ring carefully going underneath the bottom rope to do so.

Blackfront: Going underneath the bottom rope to catch a breather is allowed here. Stan: Yes. However if you go over the top rope and both your feet hit the floor you are eliminated.

Darian Dumont hits the ropes and nails Corbin in the back of the knee cap with a knee of his own. He rushes to the corner and climbs the turnbuckle. Envy turns away from Abdul slowly after noticing and is nailed in the side of the face by a huge drop kick from the top rope.

Stan: Dumont nearly took his head off with that drop kick from the top rope!

Blackfront: Abdul is attempting to eliminate Lucius Jones!

Abdul has his hands around Jones's throat. He continues to push him against the ropes attempting to eliminate him. Lucius balls both fists and begins hitting Hussain with lefts over rights. Abdul releases his hold as the punches begin hitting the mark. The two men exchange punches in the middle of the ring with complete chaos ensuing all around them. Stan: Abdul continues his attempt to eliminate the big guy.

Blackfront: I believe he sees him as a threat in this match and wants him gone immediately.

Envy begins kicking Peyton with his left then right leg quickly and swiftly. He continues switching kicks until he works von Licht into the corner. He puts his foot against Peyton's throat using the ropes to force more pressure. Frank Dylan James clobbers Envy from behind and back hand chops Peyton across the chest.

Blackfront: Dumont is pushing Abdul around now!

Dumont shoves Abdul once and then again. Adul Irish whips Dumont into the ropes and then bounces off the other rope meeting him mid ring with a spear!

Stan: Not anymore he's not. He just got cut in half!

Blackfront: This is war! Frank Dylan James is picking a fight now with Frank Washington!

Washington pushes FDJ off of him. He then hits a cross arm breaker! Washington turns right into a fore arm smash from Al Envy! Peyton Von Licht runs at Envy but he ducks causing Von Licht to run straight into Abdul. Abdul flips von Licht over the top rope and out onto the apron. Abdul catches an unsuspecting von Licht right on the chin with a super kick! He sends Peyton flying to the floor outside the ring. The referees run up and explain to him he has been eliminated.

Blackfront: Peyton von Licht has just been eliminated!

Stan: He is done here tonight.

Log Habben has Frank Dylan James down on one knee striking him with fierce head butts. Finally Habben gets him flat on the mat and applies Leg Removal. The crude sharpshooter is broken up by Washington! Washington one hand bulldogs Habben right out of his sharpshooter. Lucius Jones opposite side of the ring hits an inverted fall away slam on Howard King! Jones picks him up and carries him toward the ropes.

Stan: King is being carried over to the top rope! He better snap out of it!

Blackfront: Jones is attempting to throw King over the top rope. King clings to the top rope in desperation!

King fights to stay clung to the top rope. Lucius is hammered from behind by Al Envy. He spins Jones around and hits a jaw breaker lariat! Envy takes the big man down and the others rush to stomp him. They circle Lucius and all begin stomping at him. King sits his foot down on the apron and climbs through the ropes and back into the ring. The men again start fighting amongst each other after they collectively finish attacking Jones.

Blackfront: Howard King was almost eliminated right there.

Stan: Dumont with the eye poke in the corner! He has blinded Frank Washington.

Frank Dylan James takes off at Dumont with a big time clothesline! The clothesline sends him over the top rope and he lands on the outside.

Stan: FDJ has eliminated Darian Dumont!

Dumont walks around the ring shaking his head. The referees direct him to leave the ring area and he does so reluctantly. King sneaks up behind Frank Washington for an atomic drop! Howard follows up with a swinging neck breaker.

Blackfront: Darian has been eliminated and now Howard and Washington are going at it.

Stan: Now two men are gone and eight remain.

Howard irish whips Washington right into spinning spinebuster from Corbin! Marcus wastes little time as he hooks Washingtons over his own head. He gets him up for a stalling suplex. Adul Bin Hussain low blows Corbin causing him to drop Washington as both men crash hard to the mat.

Stan: Abdul with the painful strike.

Log Habben knee's Abdul In the midsection and takes him to the mat with an arm drag. Adbul fights him off but he continues to twist the left arm of Hussain.

Stan: Log Habben is going to break his arm!

Blackfront: Abdul has reversed it! Belly to belly suplex!

Lucius Jones out of nowhere Oklahoma Slams Abdul! Jones sends Hussain to the mat with brutal force. Abdul rolls under the bottom rope and then to the outside of the ring. Blackfront: Jones nearly broke the ring with that one!

Stan: Abdul has escaped to the outside to gather himself. Washington and Corbin continue to battle in the ring!

Marcus and Frank continue to swap blows in the ring. Washington gets the upper hand and from behind Envy hits a roaring elbow to the side of Corbin's skull. Envy points at the corner turnbuckle then pats both shoulders of Frank Washington. Frank shakes his head in agreement as Envy helps get Corbin on Washington's shoulders before climbing to the top turnbuckle. Washington holds a dazed Corbin on his shoulders as Envy dives off the turnbuckle with his right arm extended out. He clotheslines Corbin at the throat flipping him backwards off Washington's shoulders. Corbin hits the mat and does not move.

Stan: They may have just killed him! DID YOU SEE THAT!

Blackfront: Washington and Envy working together with that violent display. Frank Dylan James rolls underneath the bottom rope and out of the ring. He attacks Abdul on the outside. FDJ continues after Abdul with open hand chops. Meanwhile inside the ring Corbin is yet to move. Washington and King now go at it in the corner. Howard knees Frank in the crotch and climbs the turnbuckle. Washington recovers then jumps flat footed up on the ropes and utilizes his brilliant balance for a quick missile drop kick to Howard! The sudden and unexpected strike from Washington sends Howard backwards off the top turnbuckle. He lands awkward on the outside as the referees ringside declare he is eliminated.

Blackfront: Howard is gone. He took a bad spill there.

Stan: He sure did, medical staff are now out here checking on him.

Envy slivers up behind Washington and spins him around. Before Frank can even react he is decked with a European uppercut. Al hits the ropes behind him to follow up but Abdul on the outside sweeps Al's legs from underneath him.

Stan: Save by Abdul! Washington is now on the attack!

Blackfront: Al Envy is taking lefts and rights from a pissed off Frank Washington. Washington continues his assault. Outside of the ring Frank Dylan James and Abdul continue to go at it. Abdul slams FDJ's head into the apron and then rolls him into the ring leaving his head exposed underneath the bottom rope out on the apron. Abdul climbs up on the apron and leg drops Frank Dylan James across the throat!

Blackfront Abdul lands the leg drop!

Stan: Abdul has gotten back in the ring now. He goes back after Lucius!

Lucius Jones side walk slams Hussain to the mat. Corbin hits a bulldog on Al Envy and follows up with a pin. Envy pushes him off and catches Corbin in the eye with a sharp elbow.

Stan: That's going to leave a bruise!

Envy whips Corbin towards the ropes but Marcus quickly reverses the whip sending Envy out onto the apron. He desperately reaches out for the ropes and catches the middle rope stopping just short of landing on the outside. Al catches his balance on the apron attempting to reenter the ring. Corbin catches a knee from all through the ropes. Corbin bends and Envy hooks him from the apron for a suplex.

Blackfront: No Way!

Al lifts Corbin into air and extends a leg out to catch around the middle rope as he drops Corbin to the outside of the ring from the stalling suplex. Al Envy shows his true athletic ability.

Stan: Corbin has been eliminated! Wow that awesome.

Frank Dylan James charges up the steps. Log Habben meets him in the corner and pulls him across the ropes and into the ring. A furious Frank Dylan James pops back up to his feet and clobbers Habben with a forearm smash. He pushes him into the corner and continues to hammer away. On the far side of the ring Lucius Jones attempts to eliminate Abdul who has his leg hooked on the bottom rope. He leans in with a violent head butt on Jones! Abdul head butts him once more before Jones releases his hold on Abdul.

Blackfront: Abdul has made his presence known very well in this match up. Stan: Abdul is a scary man. I hope they checked him before they let him in here. Blackfront: STAN!

Al Envy takes down the big Lucius Jones with a Russian leg sweep and quickly follows up with a ankle lock.

Blackfront: Envy works the ankle of the big man!

Stan: He wants to keep this fight on the mat and soften those legs up.

Frank Dylan James continues his pursuit of Log Habben. FDJ continues to head butt his opponent. Habben and Frank battle up against the ropes. Habben catches another headbutt and falls back against the ropes for complete support. He turns toward Washington still against the ropes and is hit on the jaw with a spinning heel kick! Habben absorbs the full power of the kick and is sent over the top rope and down to floor below. Blackfront: Log Habben has been eliminated! He fought the whole way!

Stan: Yeah he did, just a bad break and now he's out. Abdul is on the top turnbuckle! Abdul bin Hussain is perched up on the top turnbuckle as Frank Dylan James, Al Envy and Washington are hit with a 3 wide cross body from Abdul!

Stan: He caught them not paying attention and took three out with one cross body! Blackfront: Abdul bin Hussain is putting on a show for these people here tonight and watching the pre show from home!

Stan: Al Envy and Washington are at it again in the corner!

Al Envy continues to kick Washington until he is completely over in the corner flat on his buttocks. Envy races to the complete opposite corner then charges right back at Frank Washington! Envy's knee bounces off the jaw of Washington as he hits the mat face first. Stan: That knee hit its mark! Washington may be knocked out!

Blackfront: Lucius has Abdul back against the ropes and has pulled one leg over the top rope and now attempts to power the other over. Al Envy goes after Jones from behind as Abdul clings to the ropes. Al Envy goes to push the big man and Abdul hangs off the ropes pulling the top rope down just as Envy shoves Lucius. The ropes are now at his knees which causes him to trip up and he bounces over them and to the outside!

Blackfront: Al Envy and Abdul work together to eliminate the biggest man in this battle royal! Lucius is not happy with this result.

Stan: He's gone either way and the show must go on!

Blackfront: Four men remain. One of these four will move on.

Envy continues his pace as he swaps punches with Abdul. Washington is still down from the knee to the face he took earlier. Frank Dylan James begins trying to stomp the face of Frank Washington. He stomps away as Washington desperately reaches for the ropes to stop the onslaught.

Blackfront: Frank Dylan James is trying to leave a mud hole where Frank Washington's face used to be.

Stan: Envy is all over Abdul!

Envy continues his offense against Abdul. Get clutches him close wrapping his arms around Abdul. He lunges the Iranian over his head in a brutal belly to belly suplex. Frank Dylan James meanwhile continues to stomp away at the downed Washington. Al strikes at FDJ with Muy Tai Kicks to the back of the calf then follows up with another strike to the mid section. Envy is rolling as he hooks FDJ for the snap fisherman suplex!

Stan: Better Than YOU PLEX! Al Envy has put FDJ down!

Blackfront: He is trying to eliminate him now!

Envy hoists FDJ up and tries with all his might to flip him over the top rope. The crowd is going wild as one arm flops over then a leg soon follows.

Blackfront: Envy has just about got him...

Washington is still down as Abdul gets back to his feet and steps over Frank heading towards Envy and FDJ. Abdul walks up behind Envy reaching for his legs as he approaches. Abdul picks up Envy and flips him over the top rope which sends He and Frank Dylan James both to the floor outside. The referees stationed around the ring inform both men they have been eliminated from this match.

Blackfront: Abdul has just eliminated two men and now turns his focus to Frank Washington.

Stan: Washington took a beating earlier from a stomping FDJ.

Abdul bin Hussain methodically stalks Frank Washington. Abdul sits on Frank's chest elbowing him in the face soon after. Washington doesn't move and this encourages Abdul to head for the top turnbuckle. Abdul leaps off the top turnbuckle quickly aiming for a moonsault! Frank rolls out of the way at the last second.

Stan: ABDUL MISSES! Rough landing.

Blackfront: Abdul went for it all and no body was home.

Washington slowly gets back to his feet with his forehead bleeding. The boots from Frank Dylan James left more than a few marks. Abdul gets up holding his midsection. Abdul rushes Washington and tackles him back to the mat. Abdul knees Frank in the crotch.

Blackfront: Washington endures a low knee shot there!

Stan: Abdul has him up now!

Hussain holds Washington against the top rope and tries to dump him on over. Frank latches onto the middle rope before he topples out. He reaches out with his arm to get a solid hold on the middle rope. Abdul now has ahold of his feet and tries to push him on over and out. Washington hangs on after going over the top rope and holding the middle ropes for dear life on the outside. He twists his legs around Abdul's neck for an upside down head scissors lock!

Stan: Washington has locked in a head scissors on Abdul!

Blackfront: Abdul is trying to push him on out though!

Frank pulls himself back inside the ring using the middle rope. As he pulls himself back into the ring his legs begin to drag Abdul over the top rope. Abdul fights it but the head scissors is locked in tight. Washington jerks the ropes with everything he has left! He pulls the ropes again and this time pulls Abdul on over the top rope and both his feet touch the outside floor.

Blackfront: FRANK WASHINGTON HAS DONE IT!

Stan: Jokers Wild represent.

Washington pulls himself back into the ring breathing heavily. He gets his hand raised high before the capacity crowd.

Announcer: Your winner at 37 minutes and 22 seconds is FRANNK KKKK WASHINGTON!!!!

Stan: What a war that was... The PPV hasn't even started yet and look what has already happened so far.

Blackfront: He's right. Wow what a match! Washington will continue on into the PPV now with his dream of becoming Champion still alive and well.

Frank Washington continues to celebrate in the ring.

Blackfront: That's all for this special edition of WRESTLESHOW. Our internet Pay- Per-View will begin at the top of the hour right here on WrestleUTA.com

Stan: If you haven't purchased it yet, don't miss out!
